

Comparative Cognition Society call for Awards Committee members 2024

The Comparative Cognition Society seeks volunteers to serve on the awards committee for 2024. This committee evaluates the following awards: Ron Weisman Outstanding Student Presentation Award (evaluated in person at CO3 2024), Graduate Student Publication Award, Travel award and the CCS Early Career Award.

Committee members do not have to be present at CO3 2024 (only one of the awards is evaluated in person).

Committee Member Eligibility:

- Must be a CCS member for 2024
- Read and adhere to the CCS Meetings Code of Conduct and Diversity Statement found here: <http://comparativecognition.org/edi.php>
- Be past the window of eligibility for the Early Career Award
- Hold a PhD and conduct work in an area related to comparative cognition
- We strongly encourage applications from diverse peoples. The CCS seeks to address structural inequities in science which disproportionately burden specific groups that are represented by (but not limited to): Indigenous peoples, race, ethnicity, national origin, sex, gender identity and expression, sexual orientation, disability, socio-economic status, age, and religion.

To apply: Those wishing to apply must meet eligibility requirements and supply to following information

- Name and email
- CV

Please email this information to Dr. Lauren Guillette (awards@comparativecognition.org) by 03 November 2023.